

Paolo Rowe, 4, dressed up as a police officer at Tambrey Primary School's picnic day. Picture: Tambrey Primary School

Children celebrate big occasion

■ Courtney Fowler

An ongoing tradition at Tambrey Primary School saw almost 60 “princes” and “princesses” from kindergarten and pre-primary enjoy a picnic in the local park with their parents and siblings in the last week of Term 2.

Teacher Michelle Fitzgerald said staff enjoyed the opportunity to spend time with their students’ families to celebrate turning four and five this year.

“The pre-primary students all dressed up as fairytale characters and celebrated everyone turning five together,” she said.

“This exciting event was followed by the kindy students and their families who were celebrating everyone turning four.

“People driving by would have seen four-year-old doctors, teachers, nurses, actors, police officers and many other ‘mini adults’ playing on the playground equipment as they all dressed as what they wanted to be when they grew up.”

Ms Fitzgerald said turning four and five was a very important event and Tambrey staff enjoyed the opportunity to spend this exciting time with families celebrating together.